By Don Freeman

Dover Publications Inc., United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 209 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. A chatty crow, a newly ambitious dog, and a pair of unlikely animal friends are the stars of these three charmingly illustrated tales by Don Freeman, author of Corduroy and Beady Bear. The long-out-of-print stories, now available in a single-volume collection, combine humor with gentle lessons in humility, responsibility, and loyalty. Cyrano the Crow centers on a talkative creature who takes great pride in his ability to imitate owls, parrots, and other birds. But when Cyrano is invited to perform on a television show, the conceited crow gets a comeuppance. Flash the Dash recounts the tale of a lazy dachshund named Flash who likes to nap while his spouse, Sashay, does all the work. When Sashay insists that he find a job, Flash becomes a messenger and realizes the importance and benefits of hard work. The Turtle and the Dove tells of a weary bird who finds rest on a tiny round island which turns out to be a turtle's back. The new companions weather a storm together and discover the power of a deep friendship.

It is in a single of my personal favorite ebook. Better than never, though I am quite late in starting reading this one. I am effortlessly getting a satisfaction of reading a published ebook.
