Not illustrated. 1916 Excerpt: .room, or photo-engraving, should either eliminate printing from the consideration of the boy, or else interest him to the point of definite choice of it as an occupation. As soon as aptitude, knowledge, and manipulative skill and definite choice are manifested by the individual, he should be advanced into the printing courses proper, i. e., Practical Printing Trades Division for boys 16 years of age or over and those who have completed the work of the Preparatory Trades Department. (See page 308.) Hand composition, the simpler forms of job printing, knowledge of symmetry and artistic arrangement of types, of the construction of presses and some practice in manipulation as feeders, etc., can constitute work in actual printing for boys in the Preparatory Trades Department. III. There is warrant for provision for a Practical Printing Trades Division--a printing shop within the Delgado School. The importance of the printers trades both in New Orleans and throughout the country and the vocational opportunities warrant this special provision within the Isaac Delgado Central Trades School for Boys. The importance is indicated by the skilled occupations, the number of workers, the value of products and the general difficulty during ordinarily prosperous times in training and obtaining highly skilled employees and foremen. Furthermore, the expenditure of hundreds of dollars each year by the school boards for printing, and in the past for some printing poorly and slowly done, point to a splendid opportunity to utilize all of the printed material needed in...
