And although she witnessed the murder of those who attempted to escape, she managed a heroic escape back home. She is now internationally re-nowned as a spokesman and one who has testified before the House Committee on Foreign Affairs. She has also appeared on the Oprah television show. She is the author of Girl Soldier: A Story of Hope for Northern Ugandan Children. Our next witness after that will be Tom Malinowski, who has served as the Washington advocacy director for Human Rights Watch since 2001. He is responsible for the organizations overall advocacy effort. Prior to joining Human Rights Watch, he served as a special assistant to President Bill Clinton and as a senior director of foreign-policy speechwriting at the National Security Council. He holds degrees in political science from the University of California at Berkeley and Oxford University. And our final witness will be Professor David M. Crane, ap-pointed as a professor of practice at Syracuse University College of Law in the summer of 2006. From 2002 to 2005, he was the chief prosecutor of the Special Court for Sierra Leone in an international war crimes tribunal and was appointed to that position by Sec-retary General of the United Nations Kofi Annan. He has served in public service for over 30 years in various capacities, such as senior inspector general at the Department of Defense and the as-sistant general counsel of Defense Intelligence Agency. So we begin our testimony with Ms. Akallo. Your...
