The new catalogue of the Institute of Musical Art, Frank Damrosch, Director, provides interesting and instructive reading to any one interested in musical education. After stating the general purpose and plan of the school it outlines the Plan of Instruction and the description of all the various courses of study in great detail, and a perusal of this description will convince the reader that here is offered a genuine musical education such as no private teacher can possibly provide. Among the salient features of the plan is the fact that all lessons in singing or in playing an instrument are given privately--not in classes--thereby preserving all the advantages of private instruction, while to these lessons are added all the other studies needed for an allround musical education. The teachers are all selected for excellence in their special field. There are no assistant teachers. Among them are such well-known artists as Franz Kneisel, Hans Letz, Edouard Dethier, and Willem Willeke in the Department of Stringed Instruments; Clarence Adler, Richard Buhlig, James Friskin,...
