

Two-Hour Teddy Bears

By Anita Louise Crane

1998. Hard Cover with dust jacket. Book Condition: New. 8.75 x 11.25 in. Collector Bookstore is a retailer of new books located in Leavenworth, Kansas. We specialize in price guides and reference books for the antiques and collectibles industry. It's so "bear-y" easy! If you've got 2 hours, basic sewing skills, and a few materials from a crafts or sewing supply store, you can make an adorable teddy bear to cuddle, display, or give as a gift! Most of these models don't require time-consuming and difficult techniques, such as small extra pieces, complicated curves, and jointing mechanisms--and the results are simply enchanting. Stitch Miss Willow in her lace apron; angelic Helouise with wings on her back; Colette holding a useful pincushion; and a cheery, merry Santa Bear. Place a card or valentine in Bearheart's open arms and present him to a loved one. Long-legged Benjamin appears ready for a hike, in his boots and knitted sweater, socks, scarf, and hat. There are 17 bears in all--complete with full patterns and helpful sewing hints! The author lives in Park City, UT.
